

At the Department of History at Humboldt University/Chair of Social and Economic History, a position as Research Assistant (PhD candidate) (pay scale TV-L E13, 75%) is to be filled on Oct 1st, 2025. The length of employment is planned to be 4 years.

Your tasks will include:

- Research project in social and economic history
- Teaching courses and seminars in social and economic history (three hours per week per semester).
- Coordination of the weekly research colloquium
- Research-related activities and administration.

Job requirements:

- An excellent academic degree (Master's level) in History, Economic History, Economics or a related discipline
- A strong research profile in economic and social history
- Interest in interdisciplinary work
- Teaching experience is helpful.
- Excellent written and spoken English skills-
- Basic proficiency in German or the willingness to learn is desirable.
- Teamwork skills and initiative

What we offer:

- Ph.D. supervision
- A challenging and varied work environment with a motivating atmosphere
- Networking opportunities at a renowned university
- Professional development opportunities
- Flexible working hours
- A workplace in the heart of Berlin
- A discounted job ticket for public transport

We particularly welcome applications from women. Severely disabled applicants will be given preference if they are equally qualified in terms of suitability, competence and professional performance.

Please compile your application documents (CV, cover letter, project outline and other supporting documents) into a single PDF file and send it via email to [nuetzenadel\[at\]hu-berlin.de](mailto:nuetzenadel[at]hu-berlin.de).